

1.3.9 Provision of AUN-QA Training and Consulting to AUN-QA Members and Associate Members

Expansion of awareness and outreach of AUN-QA is encouraged. Training relating to the SAR writing and assessment shall be made through AUN Secretariat. These training courses that are not administered by AUN Secretariat shall not be recognised as a prerequisite for membership application.

1.4 Membership of AUN-QA Network

The membership of AUN-QA network consists of the following categories:

Category A Membership (Members)

Consists of member universities of the ASEAN University Network (AUN). All AUN members will automatically become a member of the AUN-QA network which are approved by the BOT.

Category B Membership (Associate Members)

Consists of non-member universities of the AUN. Associate membership is open to any educational institution of higher learning that fully meets the associate membership requirements specified by the AUN-QA network. All associate membership shall be approved by the AUN-QA Council.

1.4.1 Benefits of Members and Associate Members of AUN-QA Network

- Opportunities to be involved in AUN-QA programmes, and/or projects and to develop joint initiatives with other partnering organisations;
- Networking through CQOs meetings and conferences;
- Opportunity for their institutions and programmes to be assessed by AUN-QA network;
- Given privilege and priority to attend AUN-QA training workshops and courses; and
- Sharing of AUN-QA best practices and information relating to quality assurance.